

Invest In Your Tomorrow

The Pulp & Paper Division Development Program

Are you looking to kickstart your career?

We are looking for the next generation of leaders to join our team!

We are offering:

- Paid Tuition at NBCC for the following programs: Mechanical Technician, Power Engineering Technology, Industrial Controls Technology (Electrical & Instrumentation), Process Control Technology and Chemical Technology
- Paid Work Terms
- Free Books
- Professional Development Opportunities
- A Secure Full-Time Job After Graduation
- Must be a graduating grade 12 student who has been accepted to one of the participating NBCC programs for the Fall

To be considered, please submit a current resume, a completed application form, and a transcript from your high school. Applications must be submitted by March 15th, 2024 to tolan.andrea@irvingpulp.com.

